READING AND BOOK-SIGNING

by Prof. Tanya Peres, FSU Department of Anthropology and coeditor of

Baking, Bourbon, and Black Drink: Foodways Archaeology in the American Southeast

(University of Alabama Press, 2018)

2:30 Tuesday, February 12, which is FSU's annual AUTHORS' DAY

Please join us at 2:30 at Calvin's Coffee Shop, downstairs at UKirk (formerly the Presbyterian University Center), at the corner of Copeland and Park Ave.

Note: at 4:00 that afternoon there'll be a reception at Strozier Library!

This session is the twelfth in an ongoing series of once-per-semester events; for more details, please visit <https://facultyluncheon.cci.fsu.edu/faculty-readings/> or e-mail dmoore@fsu.edu. Thanks!
